

Always treat your triumphs like funerals and never let emotions rule your life !!

Luke 6:8 you speak what your heart is full of

Proverbs 6:12

Ezekiel 3:.....

Words are an investment

Safe space

If you don't have anything you have to act like you own everything you know you either the most powerful man in the room or nothing it's your winning leg that makes you richer !! Life is your restaurant!!

You've got to be more confident about what you have to offer people don't see your loyalty but your real character will eventually have to shine through.

The more you gain in pretending is the more you want

Now you have to choose ; our greatest challenge...

We need to find more of whose approval will stick the most than those with whom admiration and sacrifice is in concerned with
